

Learn Bridge in A Day?®
Friday December 1, 2017

Do you want your friends and family to learn the game you love? Need to sharpen your own basic bridge skills? Haven't played bridge since college days? Bridge groups are asking you to come and join them?

Memphis Bridge Unit and Unit 144 are holding a Learn Bridge in A Day?® seminar on December 1, 2017.

We hope you will join us and tell a friend! Interactive play and home study materials are included with whirlwind bridge's award winning LBIAD education program!

This five-hour class is designed for both newcomers and those returning to bridge. Learn fundamentals and the aspects of gameplay. It's a great chance to be reacquainted with the world's most popular card game or learn game fundamentals for the first time.

Bring a friend — or make new ones! Learn Bridge in A Day?® is the perfect introduction to the bridge community. Students will leave ready to take on a new beginner bridge class or even play in a novice game at the local club! Social groups will welcome you at your level!

Are you up for the challenge? Spread the word and let's see who can Learn Bridge in A Day?®.

Former students say: I saved time and hours of weekly lessons! I feel confident starting to play with my friends! I always wanted to get started back into bridge from college, and this was the perfect way to understand the new bridge concepts. Easy and Fun! Can't wait for more bridge!
